

GEHA Licensed Ecclesiastical Holistic Practitioner License Agreement

1. Agreement Overview: The applicant for the “Licensed Ecclesiastical Holistic Practitioner,” referred to as “Practitioner” or “Licensee,” agrees to the terms outlined in this Agreement to receive an Ecclesiastical Ministerial license from the Guardian Ecclesiastical Medical Association, Inc®, a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization domiciled in Sarasota, Florida, USA (d/b/a Guardian Ecclesiastical Holistic Association - GEHA).
2. Code of Operations: The Practitioner agrees to follow and uphold GEHA’s Code of Operations, confirming they have read and understood it.
3. Eight Essential Biblical Truths: The Practitioner agrees to adhere to GEHA’s Eight Essential Biblical Truths, acknowledging they have read and understood them.
4. LifeCare Agreement: The Practitioner agrees to comply with the LifeCare Agreement provided by GEHA, confirming full understanding.
5. Directory Listing with Holistic Health Link (HHL): The Practitioner agrees to pay a $25 monthly fee to HHL in addition to their GEHA membership fee. HHL provides a platform for posting the LifeCare Agreement and collects contact information through its digital database. HHL is not responsible for unauthorized access, data breaches, or loss of information and Licensee releases GEHA from all liability related to these occurrences.
6. Subscription Cancellation: Practitioners may cancel their GEHA subscription at any time on their dashboard. Upon cancellation, the GEHA license becomes void, and the HHL listing is automatically canceled.
7. Failed Payment: If a credit card payment fails, GEHA will make three (3) additional attempts to process the charge. If all attempts fail, the GEHA membership will be canceled automatically, which will also result in the automatic cancellation of the HHL subscription. Reactivation is allowed at any time; however, the GEHA membership must be reactivated first, followed by the HHL subscription. Both subscriptions must be active simultaneously for the license to remain valid. If either subscription is inactive, the license will be deemed null and void.
8. Reactivation of Membership: Practitioners must reactivate both GEHA and HHL subscriptions to restore their license. Reactivation within the current billing cycle retains the existing cycle; otherwise, a new billing cycle begins.
9. Use of GEHA Logo: The GEHA logo is posted on the member dashboard and is available for use on business cards, websites, and social media. For other uses, written approval from GEHA is required.

10. Annual Report Renewal: Practitioners must submit an annual report, including proof of liability insurance showing GEHA added as an additional insured, within thirty (30) days of the report request.
11. Retention of LifeCare Agreements: Practitioners are strongly encouraged to have all clients sign the digital LifeCare Agreement available on their HHL profile. If a printed version is used, practitioners must retain the signed copy for a minimum of three (3) years, with a recommended retention period of five (5) years.
12. Indemnification Clause: The Practitioner agrees to indemnify and hold GEHA, its affiliates, and representatives harmless from any claims, damages, or legal actions arising from their practice or associated activities.
13. Insurance Requirement: Practitioners must maintain professional liability insurance, listing GEHA as an additional insured. Proof of insurance must be submitted within thirty (30) days of membership payment and annually thereafter.
14. Scope of License: Practitioners are authorized to operate within their educational training and in accordance with state laws and constitutional religious rights. They are encouraged to consult tax professionals regarding the potential benefits of ministerial credentials.
15. Dispute Resolution: All disputes must be resolved within GEHA under its governing laws as a private membership association. Practitioners waive the right to file lawsuits against GEHA or its representatives.
16. Lifestyle and Discipline: Practitioners must uphold Christian values and biblical teachings. GEHA reserves the right to discipline members through verbal warnings, written reprimands, probation, suspension, or expulsion for non-compliance.
17. Digital Credentials: GEHA issues ecclesiastical license credentials through a third-party digital credentialing service provider. By applying for and maintaining a license with GEHA, the Practitioner acknowledges and agrees that GEHA will share the Practitioner's name and relevant license information with this service provider for the purpose of issuing, hosting, displaying, and verifying digital credentials. Digital credentials are hosted by the service provider and are made accessible through a verification page or shareable link. Any communications regarding issued credentials will come from GEHA. GEHA remains responsible for determining eligibility and for the accuracy of the license information it issues. Requests to correct or remove personal information associated with a credential must be submitted to GEHA, which will process the request. If the Practitioner's license is canceled, suspended, revoked, expired, or otherwise rendered null and void under this Agreement, the corresponding digital credential will be revoked or marked invalid and an expiration notice will appear on the credential's verification page, and the Practitioner agrees to discontinue any display or representation of the credential as current or valid. The Practitioner agrees to use the digital credential only to indicate the recognition it represents and not in any manner that misrepresents its meaning, scope, or the authority it confers.
18. Amendments and Modifications: GEHA reserves the right to modify, update, or amend this Agreement, including its policies, fees, and program requirements, at any time. GEHA will make the current version available through the member dashboard or by other reasonable means, and material changes will be communicated to the Practitioner. Continued membership or use of GEHA services after such changes take effect constitutes the Practitioner's acceptance of the revised terms.

1. Entire Agreement: This document supersedes all prior agreements and represents the complete understanding between the Practitioner and GEHA.
2. Email Usage: GEHA will not sell or share email addresses but may use them for service-related communications, account administration, marketing, and other purposes outlined in this Agreement.
3. Acknowledgment and Electronic Acceptance: By accepting this Agreement through the GEHA enrollment process, the Practitioner acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agreed to all terms, policies, and conditions outlined in this Agreement, including GEHA's Code of Operations, the Eight Essential Biblical Truths, the LifeCare Agreement, and the GEHA terms and conditions and privacy policy referenced herein. The Practitioner agrees that electronic acceptance, including selecting an acceptance option or otherwise proceeding through enrollment, carries the same legal effect as a handwritten signature and constitutes the Practitioner's binding agreement to this Agreement and all incorporated documents.
